HYATT HOUSE PORTLAND AIRPORT CELEBRATES GRAND OPENING

New Extended-Stay Hotel Debuts with Residential-Style Suites, Flexible Meeting Space and Convenient Access to Portland International Airport

Ore., August 6, 2026 — Hyatt House Portland Airport is now open, welcoming guests to a new extended-stay experience designed for today's business and leisure travelers. Located minutes from Portland International Airport (PDX), the hotel offers spacious residential-style accommodations, modern amenities and seamless access to numerous on-site and nearby dining venues as well as The Mindaro Event Center for hosting a wide-range of meetings and events.

The opening marks a significant milestone for Hyatt House Portland Airport and The Mindaro Event Center, a thoughtfully designed hospitality destination that brings together accommodations, dining, meetings and events in one convenient location. The hotel provides travelers, businesses and event planners with a connected experience that blends comfort, convenience and flexibility.

"We set out to create a unique hospitality ecosystem in Portland that provides guests and meeting planners with opportunities to create a complete and connected experience," said Rick Takach, chairman and chief executive officer of Vesta Hospitality. "The opening of Hyatt House Portland Airport represents an important step in bringing that vision to life and reflects our commitment to creating exceptional hospitality experiences that serve the evolving needs of today's travelers."

The hotel is designed to help guests maintain their personal and professional routines while away from home. Hyatt House Portland Airport features spacious apartment-style accommodations, flexible living spaces, complimentary Wi-Fi, fitness facilities, room service and thoughtful amenities tailored to both short- and extended-stay guests.

THE MINDARO EVENT CENTER

Guests and event planners also have access to The Mindaro Event Center, which offers more than 8,000 square feet of flexible meeting and event space. The center features a 5,300-square-foot ballroom accommodating up to 380 guests for banquets and receptions. Designed for flexibility, the ballroom can be configured in four distinct layouts to accommodate events of varying sizes.

A separate 2,000-square-foot breakout space, The Willamette Room, can be divided into two naturally lit meeting rooms to support a variety of event formats. Two private boardrooms seating up to 10 and 20 guests offer integrated technology and seamless connectivity for productive meetings and focused collaboration.

DINING EXPERIENCES

- The Hollow Café + Bar — Opening this fall, The Hollow Café + Bar is located in the hotel's lobby and offers crafted coffee beverages featuring Stumptown Coffee alongside simple yet satisfying breakfast offerings in the morning. In the afternoon and evening, the café will transition into a bar serving regional wines, craft beers and small plates in a relaxed and inviting setting.
- Jawfish Restaurant — Located adjacent to the hotel and event center, Jawfish is a gathering place where guests and locals alike can Eat. Drink. Revel. The restaurant combines inventive cooking, comforting flavors and a lively bar scene inspired by the spirit of the Pacific Northwest.
- Le Petit Chef — A first for Oregon, Le Petit Chef is an immersive culinary adventure that combines a three-dimensional animated dinner show with thoughtfully curated prix fixe menus, creating an engaging and memorable dining experience. Le Petit Chef is an experience offered at Jawfish Restaurant. Reservations are required and shows take place Thursday – Sunday.

Hyatt House Portland Airport also provides convenient access to many of the region's cultural and recreational attractions. Guests can explore Portland's vibrant arts scene, including museums, galleries and boutiques throughout the city. Outdoor enthusiasts can easily visit some of Oregon's most iconic destinations, including Multnomah Falls, the Columbia River Gorge, Forest Park, the International Rose Test Garden, Portland Japanese Garden and the Oregon Zoo.

"Today's travelers expect more than a hotel room. They want comfort, flexibility and service that make travel easier," said Phillip Wilson, general manager of Hyatt House Portland Airport. "Whether guests are staying for a few nights or several weeks, our team is committed to delivering a welcoming experience with thoughtful amenities and personalized hospitality to help guests feel at home."

The term "Hyatt" is used in this release for convenience to refer to Hyatt Hotels Corporation and/or one or more of its affiliates.
